PERSONAL STATEMENT	I am an ambitious student in my third year at the University of Salford studying Multimedia Journalism based in the Northwest. Alongside my studies, I continue to grow my portfolio to ability, working alongside ex and professional athletes as well as great companies. I have relevant experience writing for online news platforms with SEO and meta suite being a notable strength in my skill set.
WORK EXPERIENCE	Videographer, Bolton Wanderers Women – August 2024 – present. Internship with the women's team taking a videography lead within the set-up. This sees me work closely with the staff and players to produce behind-the-scenes content as well as interview pre- and post-games for the club's TV channel. Reporter, Black Flash Promotions – July 2023 – present. I work closely with the promotor Pat Barrett to cover the content of the boxing whole within his stable of professional boxers as well as keeping track of the amateur stars coming through the ranks. I prepare and produce interviews with the boxers, which I have the full creative lead on, so I am producing the best quality journalism for people watching. As well as take a lead on the photography for the company. Student reporter, Salford Now – Nov 2023 – present. I have written and edited dozens of Salford-based articles, as well as produced engaging content for social media platforms taking up editorial roles within the set-up of Salford Now.
EDUCATION	The University of Salford, Bachelor of Arts – BA, Multimedia Journalism - Sep 2022 – May 2025. Future skills College, Creative Media Level 3 BTEC - Three Distinction Stars D* D* D*
GCSE GRADES	Maths – 4, English Literature – 6, English language – 5, Science – 5-5, Business Studies – 6, Media Studies – 6, History – 7, Creative iMedia - Level 2 Merit. In 2019, I sat my CiDA exam and was awarded a Level 2 Pass - Certificate in Digital Applications
